

Ah man, ah say

15th-century English

Trans. Carol Anne Perry Lagemann (SCA Kasha Alekseeva)

Ah man, ah sigh, ah sigh, ah sigh, And

Ah man, ah sigh, ah sigh, ah sigh, And

4

ask for mer - cy ere you die.

ask for mer cy ere you die.

7

Fine

1.Man, think of how be - fore this morn For 2.In sin your life if you have led, A - 3.And though your sin be sim - ple still, For 4.Your God, who died on coars - est wood, For 5.Your God, who dear - ly you has bought, His 6.His mer - cy's spread up - on the ground. Still

1.Man, think of how be - fore this morn For
 2.In sin your life if you have led, A -
 3.And though your sin be sim - ple still, For 4.Your God, who died on coars - est wood, For 5.Your God, who dear - ly you has bought, His 6.His mer - cy's spread up - on the ground. Still

Ah man, ah say

your mis - deeds you were for - lorn. But mer - cy is here now mend it now, and do not dread, For He His mer - cy your sin shall you have no ill; Now mer - cy ask you your mis - deeds His blood has stood. His mer - cy is so mer - cy wish - es that you sought; For if you seek, He de - there it lies while days a - bound, And there-fore go seek till

your mis - deeds you were for - lorn. But mer - cy is here now mend it now, and do not dread, For He His mer - cy
your sin shall you have no ill; Now mer - cy ask you
your mis - deeds His blood has stood. His mer - cy is so mer - cy wish - es that you sought; For if you seek, He de -
there it lies while days a - bound, And there-fore go seek till

D.C. al Fine

Christ is born, Ah sigh, ah sigh.
forth has spread, Ah sigh, ah sigh.
if you will, Ah sigh, ah sigh.
full and good, Ah sigh, ah sigh.
nies you not, Ah sigh, ah sigh.
it be found, Ah sigh, ah sigh.

Christ is born, Ah sigh, ah sigh.
forth has spread, Ah sigh, a if you will, Ah sigh, a full and good, Ah sigh, a nies you not, Ah sigh, a it be found, Ah sigh, a