

Aucuns vont souvent-Amor qui cor-Kyrie

Petrus de Cruce (fl. 1290)

Trans. Carol Anne Perry Lagemann (SCA Kasha Alekseeva)

Triplum
Some say pub-lic-ly bad things <sup>3</sup>a-bout love from en-vy, and yet there is no life as good for you as

Duplum
To in - - - jure — lov - - - ers fa - - -

Tenor

4
Tr
lov-ing loy <sup>6</sup>- al - ly, for from love all <sup>3</sup>cour-te-sies soon grew, all <sup>3</sup>ho-nor and all good up-bring-

D
ted, by car - nal lust — cre - a - - - ted

T

9
Tr
ing came to be. All of this can be seen in a per - son who loves some-one, and is true, and love ne - ver has ex - ist - ed with - out — the cold and twist - - -

D

T

16
Tr
loves in pur - i - ty. Vil - lain-y ne-ver is found in what he may do, nor does he de - sire to ga - ther mo -

D
ed ef - fects of sin, — for sure - - - ly the more —

T

22

Tr
 ney. Ra-ther, his friends have fair vir - tue; he spends mo - ney gen - er - ous - ly, and no ill will does he

D
 love gi - ven pure - - - ly to a - ny - thing_____

T

27

Tr
 have in view, nor for a - ny-one en - vy, but he hum - bles___ him - self, too, speak - ing to all cour - te - ous -

D
 that pass - - - es a - way___ like fra - gile grass - - - es

T

33

Tr
 ly, if he set his heart all through on lov - ing without ex - cep - tion, en - tire - ly.

D
 and to___ de - cay is dri - - - - - ven,_____ the less___

T

38

Tr
 If these things he does not do, he has not love, but dis - hon - est - y.

D
 the___ Lord_____ is gi - - - - - ven.

T