1. On this trou - bled earth pro - tect me,
 And in Hea - ven re - col - lect me,
 2. God de - sired so much to - love you,
 He re - vealed His star a - bove you;

For here qui - et times must be
 Since I'm go - ing there to see
 Since you are so full of me
 For His birth, He chose to share

4. From the East you came to meet Him,
 Worshipping the King transcendent,
 Bringing noble gifts to greet Him
 For his worthiness resplendent.
 From afar the star ascendant
 Guided you with shining splendors:
 Be my keepers and defenders.

5. Shepherds in the fields adored Him,
 Serving him in sweet consensus.
 You, my lords, too knelt before Him,
 King of Kings in vast immenseness.
 Through the sacred law's intenseness,
 So much love to you God renders;
 Be my keepers and defenders.

¡Oh, Reyes Magos benditos!
