

Quam pulchra es

John Dunstable (c. 1390-1453)

Trans. Carol Anne Perry Lagemann (SCA Kasha Alekseeva)

How beau - ti - ful you are and grace - ful, the sweet - est and with

How beau - ti - ful you are and grace - ful, the sweet - est and with

How beau - ti - ful you are and grace - ful the sweet - est and with

7

such en - tice - ments. Your shape - ly fi - gure is like a to - wer - ing palm

such en tice - ments. Your shape - ly fi - gure is like a to - wer - ing palm

such en - tice - ments. Your shape - ly fi - gure is like a to - wer - ing palm

15

tree; your breasts are like po - me - gra - nates and your head is a moun - tain - top,

tree; your breasts are like po - me - gra - nates and your head is a moun - tain - top, tree; your breasts are like po - me - gra - nates and your head is a moun - tain - top, and

23

and your love - ly neck a pearl y for - tress tur - ret.

and your love - ly neck a pearl - y for - tress tur - ret.

— your love - ly neck a pearl - y for - tress tur - ret.

Quam pulchra es

2
31

To me, O my a-dored; come, let us go to the or-chards;

To me, O my a-dored; come, let us go to the or-chards;

To me, O my a-dored; come, let us go to the or-chards;

39

let us dis-co-ver if all the lit-tle flo-wers have borne fruit,

let us dis-co-ver if all the lit-tle flo-wers have borne fruit,

let us dis-co-ver if all the lit-tle flo-wers have borne fruit,

46

if po-me-gra-nate trees are blos-som-ing. In the fra-grant or-chards, my breasts

if po-me-gra-nate trees are blos-som-ing. In the fra-grant or-chards, my breasts

if po-me-gra-nate trees are blos-som-ing. In the fra-grant or-chards, my breasts

53

I'll give you. Al-le-lu-ia.

I'll give you. Al-le-lu-ia.

I'll give you. Al-le-lu-ia.