

Unicornis captivatur

Engelberg Codex (14th-15th centuries)

Trans. Carol Anne Perry Lagemann (SCA Kasha Alekseeva)

1. Now the U - ni - corn is cap - tured and the roy - al hall en - rap -
2. Life re - turns to fill the cher - ished corpse of Pe - li - can who per -
3. When by Cro - co - dile he's swal - lowed, ti - ny Hy - drus gnaws him hol -

tured, see - ing it in hunt - ter's snare;
ished, de - so - late in sin - ful shame;
low, kills his host and lives once more;

and the Ser - pent's yoke is end - ed and the ve - nomed wounds at - tend - burnt to no - thing are the awe - some Phoe - nix and the Ma - cro - cos - three long days the Li - on slum - bered 'til the King in tri - umph thun - ed; all is healed and is made fair.

m's an - cient sins and in bla - zing flame.
dered, rais - ing him with might - y roar.

"Al - le - lu - ia," play and sing to the Lamb that's dy - ing; "Al - le - lu - ia," sound the string, "Al - le - lu - ia," let us bring to the conq' - ring Li - on.