Now wolde y fayne

Anonymous (English, mid-15th century)

1. Now wolde y fayne sum-mer this make Al on-ly for my la-dy's
2. Thow y be far out of her sight, I am her man both day and
3. Whan she is merry than am y gladde; Whan she is sory than am y
4. She seith that she hath seyn it write That sel-dyn seyn is sone for-
5. Wher-for y pray bothe nyght and day That she may cast all care a-
6. And y to her to be so trewe, And ne-ver to chaung for no gbeit._______ Yt is not so, For yn good feith save on-ly____ way_______ And leve in rest, And e-ver mor where ever she__ newe_______ Un-to my ende, And that y may in her ser-gbeit._______ Yt is not so, For yn good feith save on-ly her__ way_______ And leve in rest, And e-ver mor where ever she be__ newe_______ Un-to my ende, And that y may in her ser-vise__

her I love no moo.___
be To love me best.___
vice Ever to a-ment._

I love no moo._
To love me best._
Ever to a-ment._

© Monique Rio (CC BY 4.0) | Edition Date: 13-Aug-2016