Chansonnier de St Germain-des-Prés (13th century)

Trans. Carol Anne Perry Lagemann (SCA Kasha Alekseeva)

1. When the sum - mer wea - ther comes, E - y - a,
 2. She pro - claimed it ev - ery - where, E - y - a,
 3. Let the bells and laugh - ter peal, E - y - a,
 4. But the Queen will dance all day, E - y - a,
 5. In her bo - dy and her face, E - y - a,

7

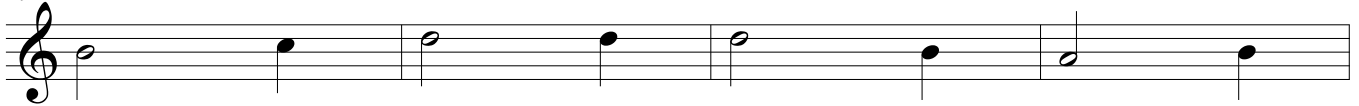

To bring joy to ev - ery - one, E - y - a,
 To the sea, from here to there, E - y - a,
 While our dance is strong and real, E - y - a,
 Send the mean old man a - way, E - y - a,
 Ev - ery - one can see her grace, E - y - a,

13

And an - noy the jea - lous ones, E - y - a,
 Boys and girls both young and fair, E - y - a,
 For the King has come to feel, E - y - a,
 For she'd ra - sing and play, E - y - a,
 And they say in a - ny case, E - y - a,

19

Let us show the Queen some fun, for Should a - ban - don ev - ery - care and
 That some - one may who try to steal a
 With a man who knows the way to
 There's no one in a - ny place to 23

she is young and she's in love.
 join us in a dance of joy.
 way his love - ly Ap - ril Queen.
 treat a young - er wo - man well.
 match the Ap - ril Queen of Joy.

27

On your way, — on your way! — Jea - lous ones, — leave — us,

35

Leave — us to dance a - mong our selves, a - mong our - selves.
