

Angelus emittitur

From Piae Cantiones (1582)

Trans. Carol Anne Perry Lagemann (SCA Kasha Alekseeva)

1. From the an - gel greet - ings flow: A - ve! his sweet
2. Na - ture yields when won - ders show; She con - ceives a
3. Flocks are feed - ing, night is slow, When from Hea - ven
4. Joy is pro - mised to and fro, Peace fore - told with
5. Now a brand - new star will glow, And no more can
6. We who loved Him caused His woe, Who, though sin - less,
7. From the Cross new Life will flow, And des - troyed is
8. A - dam's chains a - way we throw; Death and Hell have
9. All the e - vi - dence will show That in Christ no lips be - stow, And God's seed be - gan to grow:

son al - though Ne - ver did a man she know:
sun - beams glow; Praise is sung so all will know:
trum - pet's blow; Good - will brought to Earth be - low:
sha - dow's grow; Our sal - va - tion we can know:
took the blow; Yet un - con - quered, this we know:
Hell be - low; All the cap - tives are let go:
been laid low; Christ has o - ver - come the foe:
Death can grow; Death is ba - nished; this we know:

Since it's so, We through Hea - ven's Door may go.