

Bryng us in no browne bred

Thomas Ashwell (c. 1478 - after 1513)

"The Salutation Carol" (English, c. 1460)

Trans. Carol Anne Perry Lagemann (SCA Kasha Alekseeva)

Bring us in good ale, good ale, And bring us in good ale;

5

For our bless - ed La - dy's sake, Bring us in good ale. Fine

9

1. Bring us in no brown — bread, For bran — it may con - tain, — Nor bring us in no
 2. Bring us in no beef, — For there — are ma - ny bones, But bring us in good
 3. Bring us in no ba - con, For that — is pass - ing fat, — But bring us in good
 4. Bring us in no mut - ton, For that — is of - ten lean, — Nor bring us in no
 5. Bring us in no eggs, — For there — are ma - ny shells, But bring us in good
 6. Bring us in no but - ter, For hairs — get in the stores, Nor bring us in no
 7. Bring us in no pud - dings, For there-in is all God's good, Nor bring us in no
 8. Bring us in no ca - pon's flesh, For that — is of - ten dear, — Nor bring us in no

14

D.C. al Fine

white — bread, — For there - in is no grain. — But ale, — And bring — us that a - lone. — ale, — And give us e - nough of that. — tripes, — For they — are sel - dom clean. — ale, — And give — us no - thing else. — pig's — flesh, — For that — will make us bores. — ve - ni - son, — For keep — our health we would. — duck's — flesh, For they slob - ber in the mere. —