

The Corpus Christi Carol

The Falcon Carol

14th-/15th-century English

Trans. Carol Anne Perry Lagemann (SCA Kasha Alekseeva)

Lu - ly, lul - lay, lul - ly, lul - lay, The fal - con hath borne my mate a -

8 Fine

way. 1.He bore him up; he bore him down; He
 2.In that or - chard there was a hall
 3.And in that hall there was a bed;
 4.And in that bed there lay a knight; His 5.And by that bed there knelt a maid, And
 6.And by that bed there stood a stone, _____

13 D.C. al Fine

bore him in - to an or - chard brown.
 That was hanged with pur - ple and pall.
 It was hanged with gold so red.
 wounds were bleed - ing day and night.
 she would weep both night and day.
 "Cor - pus Christ - i" writ - ten there - on.