1. On the birth of our new Sa - vior, Sing as one with glad be - ha - vior.
2. From a mai - den was cre - at - ed Our new king. A new star wait - ed;
3. Da - niel's pro - phe - cy u - pon us, Ga - bri - el's a - stound - ing pro - mise:
4. Wel - come to this glo - rious moun - tain. Sing - ing in the cleans - ing foun - tain,
5. But this moun - tain has great po - wer; Dy - ing still, in death he'll flo - wer.

5
E - very - one re - joice and see! In this pu - rest gift at - test - ed,
With new rays it bright - ly shone. Warmth and light came from the strang - er,
By a vir - gin it be - gan, And this Stone al - rea - dy giv - en,
We shake off death's fear - ful grip. And the se - cret mind un - veil - ing,
Read - er, take this book in - deed With a heart of firm con - vic - tion.

9
God as man is ma - ni - fest - ed All the world to re - me - dy.
And God's child - ren seek the mang - er, All de - sir - ing Him a - lone.
With - out hands, the moun - tain riv - en Grew from moun - tain in - to man.
Safe - ly through the shroud we're sail - ing, Soothed and heart - ened by the ship.
Now is sung the be - ne - dic - tion: O - pen it; be - gin to read.
