

La bionda treçça

Francesco Landini (c. 1325-1397)

Trans. Carol Anne Perry Lagemann (SCA Kasha Alekseeva)

1.,5.,9. Her flax - en tress - es, — long and love - ly gold — hair,
4.I know the symp - toms of the sick - ness so — ur,
8.And I will thank you for each hour spent nigh — her,

have — tan - gled up my heart and bound my — soul — there.
and — Love will heed them more than words we hold — fair.
or — else I sink in pain in - to — her — cold stare.

2. Like is her — face to the face — of — shad - dow,
3.I am like — snow in the sun: — I, — sad, — go;
6.Love, you know — well of my si - tu - a - tion:
7.Go to that — face with all a - du - la - tion, splen - did cares with pearls — and ev - every kind — of all — she burn - ing to have why — death, — and I pale yet you with I lose — the — where I have sum - moned you with my — de - flow pow - er.

fi - si - er.
si - er. re.