

Lanquan li jorn son lonc en mai

Jaufre Rudel (fl. 1120-1147)

Trans. Carol Anne Perry Lagemann (SCA Kasha Alekseeva)

1. In May, long day - light warms the air. I hear
 2. I trust that God is just and fair. Giv - ing 3. What joy if she will hear my prayer. And will 4. I'll leave that land in - pained des - pair. If I'm 5. No o - ther love I will de - clare. If I 6. O God, who all things made with care. And who 7. I won't de - ny it; I'm a - ware. That I birds in song far a - way. But when I me this love far a - way; But for each wel - come from far a - way; A pil - grim kept from love far a - way; Who knows if can't have love far a - way; No love ex - shaped this love far a - way; Give strength, for grasp for love far a - way; No o - ther go and leave them there, I re - mem - ber love plea - sure I must bear, Dou - ble ills, for I'm she might lodge some - where Ei - ther near her or time we'll e - ver share. Since her land is so ists, not a - ny - where, That can best my love I al - rea - dy dare: Let me see my love plea - sure can com - pare To the joy of love far a - way. I frown and hang my head, dull - far a - way. Ah! As a pil - grim why not - far a - way. In con - ver - sa - tion oc - cu - far a - way? I've ma - ny roads and cross - ings far a - way. Her sov - ereign worth be - mag - ni - far a - way. So real, so true, so glo - ri - far a - way. But all I long for is de - eyed; No songs or blos - soms can pro - vide An im - ride Where cloak and staff might be es - pied By her pied, A plea - sure, be - ing by her side, And a tried, And still don't know and could not side; But as fied! Her slave, I wish I could re - side In that fied, The hum - ble rooms where I a - bide Will a nied For my god - fa - ther keeps me tied Where I prove - ment on win - ter's freeze. love - ly eyes, o - ver seas? wel - come there: Gifts are these!

 she pre - fers. may it be.
 south - ern land on my knees. pa - lace seem, filled with ease. love un - loved through my pleas.