

Nowel: Owt of your slepe aryse from the Selden Carol Book (15th Century England)

Trans. Carol Anne Perry Lagemann (SCA Kasha Alekseeva)

No - el, no - el, no - el, no -

5
 el, no - el, no - el.

8
 1.Out of your sleep a - rise and 2.And through a maid - en fair and 3.Now man is bright er than the 4.Who e - ver was slave, now is he 5.Now man may to hea - ven 6.Now Bless ed Bro ther, grant us

12
 wake, For God the form of man will wise Now man is gi ven such a sun; Now man both hea ven and earth has free; Who e - ver was small, now great is wend; Now hea - ven and earth to him they grace At Do mes day to see Your

wake, For God the form of man will wise Now man is gi ven such a
 sun; Now man both hea ven and earth has
 free; Who e - ver was small, now great is
 wend; Now hea - ven and earth to him they
 grace At Do mes day to see Your

take prize; won; she; bend; face, All Now Bless - ed shall that in of an - gels a will be God was Your maid kneel and who be this both now to no man's game has sin could al be - and our a

take prize; won; she; bend; face, All Now Bless - ed shall that in of an - gels a will be God was Your maid kneel and who be this both now to no man's game has sin could al be - and our a make; lies, gun, me friend; place, Of And In This That all at His to is we wo this - men time ther, bliss lie there she all Em - if that sing

make; lies, gun, me friend; place, Of And In This That all at His to is we wo this - men time ther, bliss lie there she all Em - if that sing

bears this press we I out, the be of do you "No" belle. fell. Hell. well. tell. el." No No No No No el! el! el! el! el!

bears this press we I out, the be of do you "No" belle. fell. Hell. well. tell. el." No No No No No el! el! el! el! el!