Giraut de Bornelh (c 1140 - c 1200)

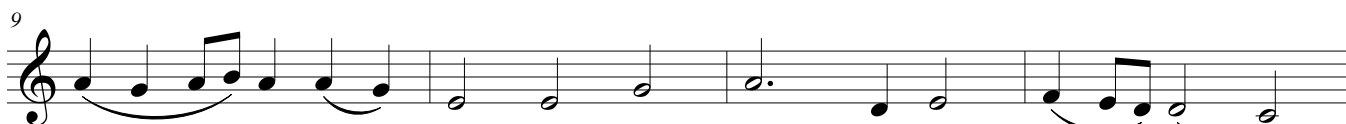

Trans. Carol Anne Perry Lagemann (SCA Kasha Alekseeva)

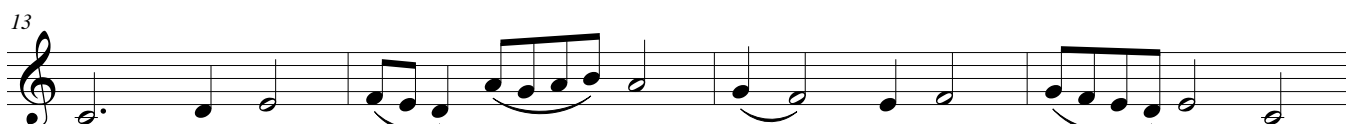

1. Glo - ri - ous King, Lord of ra - di - ant light,
 2. Beau - ti - ful friend, are you sleep - ing to - night?
 3. Beau - ti - ful friend, hear my song; come a - long!
 4. Beau - ti - ful friend, look out - side at the strong
 5. Beau - ti - ful friend, since the night was full deep
 6. Beau - ti - ful friend, you have asked me to keep
 7. Friend, so in - tense and so sweet is my stay,

God, if it please You, I pray that I might
 Do not keep sleep - ing; wake up to the sight:
 Do not keep sleep - ing, for birds are in song,
 Light from the day - star; you'll see if I'm wrong.
 When you left, I have not fal - len a sleep.
 Vows to stand vi - gil and ne - ver to sleep
 Ne - ver a - gain could I wish for the day.

Com - fort this lo - ver, help faith - ful - ly lend - ing;
 There in the east a pale star is a - scend - ing,
 O - ver the fo - rest the dawn's co - lor a - tion,
 There is my mes - sa - ge's bold af - firm - a - tion!
 You and your safe - ty to God I've com - mend - ed,
 'Til you re - turn when the night - time is end - ed,
 Here is my dream and my heart's on - ly bear - er,

I have - n't seen him since dark was de - scend - ing, And Bring - ing the day; I can see it im - pend - ing, And Comes, and I fear for you jea - lous pre - da - tion, And For if you stay, you will face de - va - sta - tion, And Prayed you'd re - turn, my friend lo - yal and splen - did, And
 But to my sing - ing when the have - n't at - tend - ed, And Whom I hold close, so I shrink from no ter - ror, Not

soon is the dawn com - ing.
 soon is the dawn com - ing.
 soon is the dawn com - ing.
 soon is the dawn com - ing.
 soon is the dawn com - ing.
 soon is the dawn com - ing.
 ri - val nor dawn com - ing.
