

Verbum caro factum est

Y la Virgin le dezia

From the Cancionero de Upsala (1556)
 Trans. Carol Anne Perry Lagemann (SCA Kasha Alekseeva)

Now the Word has been made flesh So that you may

Now the Word has been made flesh So that you may

Now the Word has been made flesh So that you may

Now the Word has been made flesh So that you may

7 Fine

all be saved. 1.Hear the Vir - gin Mo - ther sigh - ing:
 2.You with all your earth - ly rich - es,

all be saved. 1.Hear the Vir - gin Mo - ther sigh - ing:
 2.You with all your earth - ly rich - es,

all be saved.

all be saved.

13

1. "Son, how can I in
2. To the babe in

1. "Life of my own life here ly - ing,
2. Won't you give a few small stitch - es

1. "Life of my own life here ly - ing,
2. Won't you give a few small stitch - es

19

D.C. al Fine

calm your cry - ing With no clothes, whose warmth you crave?"
barns and ditch - es, Born with beasts, who sins for - gave?"

1. "With no clothes, whose warmth you crave?"
2. Born with beasts, who sins for - gave?"

1. "With no clothes, whose warmth you crave?"
2. Born with beasts, who sins for - gave?"

1. "With no clothes, whose warmth you crave?"
2. Born with beasts, who sins for - gave?"