

Virgo Mater piissima

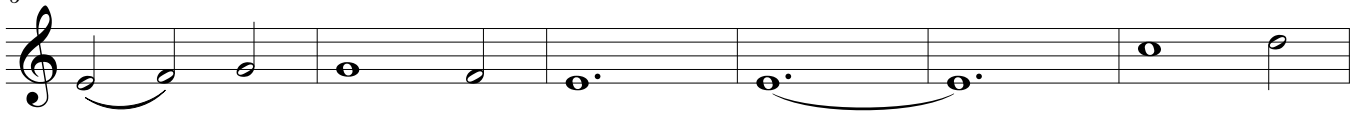

Piae Cantiones (1582)

Trans. Carol Anne Perry Lagemann (SCA Kasha Alekseeva)

1. Vir - gin Mo - ther, whose cha - ri - ty Once
 2. Ros - es, li - lies: But there are none As
 3. Vir - tue's flow - er and vine of grace, We

6

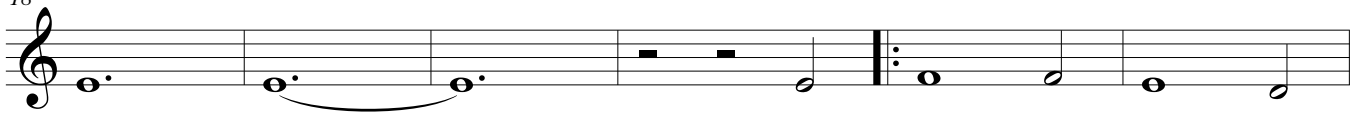

fa - shioned all cre - a - tion, Are you white as her per - fec - tion; Though a beg - for your at - ten - tion; Soothe the 12

sure that you wish for me, O Sa - vior from dam - vir - gin she bore a son And pours on him af - Fa - ther's most an - gry face And give your con - des -

18

na - tion? All day in sup - pli - fec - tion. A star with clear - re - cen - sion. This cess - pool of con -

24

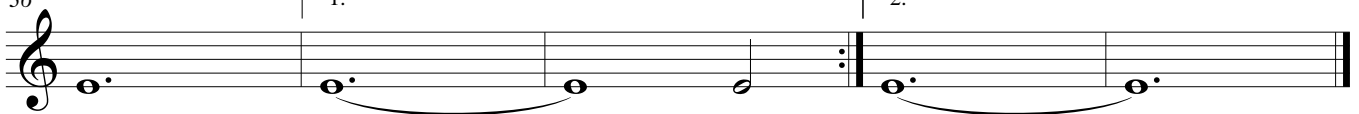

ca - tion My heart en - treats you, still and awed; My flec - tion, This sooth - ing balm, this plea - sant boon - Far ten - tion - It drowns us; save us speed - i - ly, And mouth will ho - nor and ap - plaud The fruit of your for - bright - er than the sun or moon Her love and her pro - keep us safe - ly with the Three In Hea - ven on as - ma - tion. All tion.

30

36

 tec - tion. A tion.
 cen - sion. This sion.